PRESS RELEASE

DATE: Tuesday, August 30, 2022

Several Road Closures for At-Grade Railroad Crossings.

Lebanon, Ohio – Franklin Township and City of Carlisle, Warren County, Ohio – The following roads will be closed beginning Tuesday, September 6, 2022, for the replacement of the railroad ties and resurfacing at each crossing. This project is being performed by a Contractor for CSX Railroad Transportation.

Beginning September 6, 2022, Franklin-Madison Road (Franklin Township) will be closed at the at-grade railroad crossing for two (2) to three (3) days, weather permitting.

When Franklin-Madison Road closure is complete, the Contractor shall close Central Avenue (City of Carlisle) at the at-grade railroad crossing for two (2) to three (3) days, weather permitting.

When Central Avenue closure is complete, the Contractor shall close Fairview Avenue (City of Carlisle) at the at-grade railroad crossing for two (2) to three (3) days, weather permitting.

When Fairview Avenue closure is complete, the Contractor shall close Union Road (City of Carlisle) at the at-grade railroad crossing for two (2) to three (3) days, weather permitting.

There will be no posted detour for each closure.

Your cooperation during this project will be greatly appreciated.
